Here's what we know:

| | The Secretary of the Interior is in Southern Utah this week on a listening tour regarding Bears Ears and ENM. This is part of the review of National Monuments directed by President Trump's Executive Order 192. |
|-----|---|
| Gov | The Secretary's scheduled four-day visit to Utah, which began Sunday, was coordinated by DOI with the vernor's Office. We have no specific details of the Secretary's itinerary. |
| | Currently, there are no plans for the Secretary to stop at any BLM office or visitor center. |
| Sec | GSENM management has been asked to provide background information about the Monument for the cretary. |
| adn | The review is not about the work we have or have not done. These reviews have occurred under previous ninistrations. |
| | Ride for the Brand while at work, we are expected to represent the agency, not our personal views. |
| | If you are getting questions that management can help answer, let us know. |
| | As more information becomes available, we will share it with staff. |

Respectfully,
Larry "E" Crutchfield
